Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000673

Dear Ashley Gjovik:

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on January 26, 2023, in which you seek the signed charge against employer and initial letters to the parties in Apple, Case No. 32-CA-306609. In your request, you also sought clarification regarding the Apple location where the charge was originally filed and/or later updated. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $20.00.

We acknowledged your request on January 26, 2023. In an exchange of emails with a member of the FOIA staff on February 1 and 2, you were informed that an amended charge had been filed in the case, and you agreed to accept the amended charge and its related docketing letters which show the same Apple location.

A search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search has located 17 pages of responsive, releasable records from the requested case file, which are attached.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the attached records are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category D, the "all other requesters" category, because you do not fall within any of the other fee categories. Consistent with this fee category, you will be assessed charges to recover the reasonable direct costs for searching for the requested records, except that you will not be charged for the first two hours of search. NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(D). Charges for all categories of requesters are $9.25 per quarter hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Less than two hours of professional time was expended in searching for the requested material. Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact Patrick Plummer, the Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at 202-273-2999 or by email at patrick.plummer@nrlb.gov, as well as the Agency's FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times.
